

Table of Indicators and categories

Research income allocated to interdisciplinary science research within applicable disciplines
Does your institution have measures of interdisciplinary science research success within applicable disciplines?
Does your institution provide specific physical facilities for interdisciplinary science research teams within applicable disciplines?
Does your institution provide specific administrative support for interdisciplinary science research teams within applicable disciplines?
Does your institution have a tenure or a career promotion system in place that recognizes interdisciplinary science research within applicable disciplines?
Since participating in ISR, has your institution introduced any changes to support interdisciplinary science? If yes, please describe. (Your response will not affect the rankings calculation.)
Is there any feedback you would like to share about ISR? (Your response will not affect the rankings calculation.)